

Jennifer Leitham

jenniferleitham.com

Known for playing with music masters Mel Tormé, Peggy Lee, George Shearing, Doc Severinsen, Woody Herman, Benny Carter, Bill Watrous, k.d. lang, and countless others, Jennifer Leitham is a bassist, vocalist, composer, arranger, lyricist, and producer. She's played on over 150 albums, including 11 of her own.

She is a bassist, vocalist, composer, arranger, lyricist, and producer. Her bass lines have graced numerous movies and TV shows. Currently Jennifer leads her trio and plays in clubs.

In the last few years Jennifer's been lauded as one of the top 20 transgender pioneers in Vanity Fair, named one of the "50 Most Interesting Angelinos" by L.A. Weekly, spoke at Jazz At Lincoln Center's Jazz Congress, and was profiled twice on the NowThis news.